ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR:

Jennifer earned her undergraduate degree in Art History from Dickinson College and went on to serve as the Education Coordinator at the William Benton Museum of Art at UConn Storrs campus. After raising a family, she went back to school for her K-12 Art Teaching Certificate to teach art to elementary and high school students. She also taught drawing at Vernon Adult Ed where she discovered a passion for teaching adults - something she continues to do today. Jennifer then opened Line Studio LLC which was a dream for many years - hoping to bring a unique approach to teaching drawing to her students for years to come.
